Guru Nanak Jayanti

India is a land of fasts and festivals. It is our sacred duty to celebrate these festivals with a sense of purity and sanctity. India, being a secular country we respect all religions and celebrate all the festivals without communalism and hatredness which leads to peace and harmony. To inculcate this feeling we at PMS celebrate all festivals in its true spirit. We celebrated Guru Purab, one of the most famous festivals in Sikhism on 26th Nov on the occasion of Guru Nanak's birthday with devotion and reverence. By starting the programme with mool mantra, children spoke on the significance of Gurupurab. Our Principal Ma'am also shared the teachings of Guru Nanak Dev. Many of the students attired in white sang the rhymes describing Guru Nanak Dev's glory. The programme ended with a beautiful shabad that mesmerized everyone. In the end ardas for the well being of everyone was done and prasad was distributed.
