

Pallavi Model School-Alwal

Fashion runway- junior model international, was not a simple task to complete but needed ardent relentless- behind the screen effort by parents of this little champ who humbly shared the credit both to school and the wonder kid.

To stand tall among 24 countries 50 students clearing each round of screening and selection beginning from School uniform round to Talent round where Ujwal Tej has exhibited his endowment in dance performance that had paved path to his successful journey towards National costume round where Ms.Vasundhara his beloved mother left no stone unturned and yippee the champ won it to the next level and it was Ball gown/suit round. The time was over shadowing its challenge but the little master had won laurels not only to his school and parents but to the whole country when he won the finals at Dubai where the jury awarded him with the “Second runner up award in prince and princess category Age 7-9”.

Not only did he win at Fashion runway- junior model international but also Won an opportunity to be a Brand ambassador for Telangana wonder kids.
